Israeli Dancing with RAK-DAN- Free Event!

Saturday, January 28

6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Light Israeli Fare provided.

Israeli folk dance has become a cornerstone of Jewish gatherings. Since the onset of modern Zionism, Israeli dancing has been an important cultural element to communal endeavors both in the Land of Israel and the Diaspora. Join Don Schillinger for a crash-course in Israeli dance choreography of the most popular songs, and empower yourself with access to this celebrated aspect of our tradition. No experience necessary.

Movie Night at Beth Am

Saturday, February 18

6:30 p.m. (Movie begins at 6:45 p.m.)

Private Screening of CODE NAME: AYALON followed by Q&A with producer, Laurel Fairworth. On the eve of Israel's War of Independence, a group of Jewish teenagers risked their lives to secretly manufacture bullets for freedom fighters in an underground factory. Their service, courage, and sacrifice played a critical role in the statehood of Israel. Join us to learn about these "secret" preparations for Israel becoming an independent state. Israel inspired snacks will be served!
